

Social Story

Prepare for your visit through a visual Social Story about experiencing the Museum. A paper copy of this Social Story is available at the Admissions Desk; you can review the CMA Social Story on any chairs in the Atrium.

Personal Items

You can use personal items to make your visit more enjoyable. Other visitors may also have these items in the galleries:

- Earphones
- Technology
- Stuffed animals and fidget objects
- Photography devices (without flash, tripods, or selfie sticks)
- Pencil and paper (pencil sketching may occur in the galleries)
- Wheelchairs, strollers, and other mobility items

Tip: There are wheelchairs and strollers available for use at no charge at the Admissions Desk.

Bathrooms

- CMA has two individual, fully accessible restrooms on the first floor.
- There are restroom stalls near the Schokko Café.
- The Comfort Room is located in the Center for Creativity. It includes two comfy chairs, a sink, and a diaper changing stations. Everyone is welcome to use this space.
- All CMA restrooms include hand dryers and paper towels.

Tip: The sinks in restrooms located in the new Walter Wing feature hand dryers attached to the faucet —watch out for a quick burst of air.

Food & Drink

You may bring your food and drink into CMA and enjoy it in:

- The Atrium
- The Sculpture Garden
- Derby Court

You may also purchase food at or dine in Schokko Café, located on the right when entering the Museum. The Café offers:

- Soups, appetizers, salads, sandwiches, entrées, and desserts
- Child-friendly options
- Vegetarian options

Tip: The Schokko Café is busiest from 12:00 pm – 2:00 pm
