

Columbus Museum of Art is dedicated to bringing creativity and art experiences to our community.
We truly believe that art is good for us. It can bring us together and help us explore our world.

We continually strive to remove barriers between our community and our collection by providing many different opportunities to visit.

General Admission

$18 Adults

$9 Seniors, Students and Children over 4

$5 Thursdays (5:00PM–9:00PM)

FREE Children (0-3)

Members receive free admission

Special Exhibition Admission: Prices Vary

Admission Discounts & Access Opportunities

Sundays

FREE

General Admission is always free on Sundays

Blue Star Museum Program

FREE

Free admission to active duty, retired military, veterans and their families. Simply show your active-duty military personnel or military family I.D. at the admission desk for free entry.

Museums for All

FREE

Free general and special exhibition admission for individuals in eligible programs with proof of participation:

Snap, EBT, CareSource, Ohio Directions, Medicaid, W.I.C

Columbus Metropolitan Library Culture Pass

FREE

CMA has a partnership with Columbus Metropolitan Library to offer free visits for up to two adults and six children through their Culture Pass program. CML customers can borrow a one-time pass (which must be checked out in person) to visit the Museum. These passes can be found at all 23 Columbus Metropolitan Library locations.

480 E. Broad St. Columbus, OH 43215

614.221.6801

columbusmuseum.org

CMA
 Columbus
 Museum of Art